KEITH WALKER "PEBBLES AND PUDDLES" AT FORZA 9 GALLERY, POLIS CHRYSOCHOUS

Keith Walker shows his latest work at FORZA 9 Gallery in Polis Chrysochous. The opening is on Friday 10th of November and the exhibition will run for two weeks until the 24th of November.

Keith Walker's latest project is called "Pebbles and Puddles". Inspired by beach pebbles and mine pools found in the Polis Chrysochous area the artist created a series of mixed media works executed in an abstract expressive style.

About his work the artist states: "Collecting pebbles, minerals and fossils has been an interest since childhood. Their shapes, colours, patterns, texture and form give continuing pleasure and readily translate into compositions in paint. Certain qualities will dominate and determine the approach, with the composition being built up in layers allowing chance elements to inform further development.

Similarly, the reflective qualities and translucency of water give wonderful opportunities for playing and experimenting with the process."

Keith Walker lives in Cyprus for almost 20 years. Three years ago he retired from full-time art teaching to open his own gallery in Lasa village near Fyti in the Pafos district. His work ranges from abstract oil and mixed media paintings to nude studies in pastel, chalk and charcoal.

He was one of the 43 artists taking part in last September's Open Studios and has had exhibitions in Cyprus at Paradise Place in Pamos, The Art & Wild Nature Foundation Gallery in Kallepia, En Plo in Pafos Harbour, Tekni Art School in Pafos and recently in Art Gallery Kinotos 3000 in Polis.

FORZA 9 Gallery opened its doors this spring in the heart of Polis Chrysochous aiming to create a cultural platform where innovative artists can present their work to local and foreign residents, tourists and – through digital media – to other galleries and cultural centres in Cyprus and abroad.

The interaction which results from exhibiting their work will help artists to further expand their scope and the audience has a chance to experience the diverse, trendsetting and creative activities of the cultural scene in Cyprus.

FORZA 9 is open every day from 10:00-14:00/17:00-21:00 hrs. and by appointment: call (+357) 99127428
