

Things to do and see

Book signing at Hearn's Bookshop

Saturday 14th July between 12pm and 2pm for 'The Aylesbury Duck' by James Goodwin. The author lives in Peyia. Publisher Melrose Books. ISBN 978-1-905226-61-0.

The Anglican Church of Paphos

Was challenged in December last year to provide services for children and young people. A Christingle service, complete with Christingle oranges was held in the church by St Paul's pillar - Ayia Kyriaki - and the 25 children attending, not to mention the parents and organisers, had a lot of fun!

Christingle was so successful, that a series of family-friendly services was planned as an ongoing feature of church life. One event incorporated a short Easter service on the theme of 'New Life', followed by an Easter Egg Hunt geared for the children and young people, in the grounds of Ayia Kyriaki Church, during Easter week. Anyone who found a bright red stone traded it in for a Cadbury's egg at the end of the morning.

Another event was held on Pentecost (Whit) Sunday afternoon at 15.00hrs, and was a celebration of the start of the Christian Church, when the Holy Spirit came to the inaugural meeting, and empowered the church for its future ministry until Jesus returns. On 24th June, we celebrated the Apostle Paul, who started the Christian church on this island here in Paphos - probably on the site of Ayia Kyriaki church.

The services always include lively singing and participation by the children, in various forms, and the Leadership Team will be pleased to welcome you and your family to these special services. More details available from the Anglican Church Administrative Centre, Tel. 26-953044, or Sylvia on 26-910123.

On Thursday 26th July & 23rd August, we will be having Christian workshops for children with the themes of Creation & Noah's Ark. These will be held at St. Stephen's Anglican Church in Tala - between 10.30am & 12.00 noon. For information, please contact Brenda & Colin on 26-815384.

'Masala' Goes Solo In Forza 9 Gallery

Polis Chrysochous 20-22 July. Following a successful group exhibition called "Masala" by three artists, Lazaro Hadjisoteriou, Mary-Lynne Stadler and Raymond Wilson in Nicosia, whose paintings have been influenced by travel in India, one member of the group, Lazaro, will bring her work to Polis for an individual showing. The show will be opened on Friday 20th of July and runs until Sunday the 22nd. The opening is on Friday evening at 21:00 hrs and everyone is invited to enjoy the paintings, drinks and Indian food and Indian live music.

Lazaro Hadjisoteriou. As a child, Lazaro went to the UK after the war of 1974 in Cyprus, where she studied art and design. Her love for Cyprus eventually brought her back to the island where she continued to work in the art and design field for several years. Her travels to the western and eastern world, the wonderful people she had met, and her intense experiences along the way, have had a profound influence on her work. The bright and vibrant colours of her paintings reflect the life and spirit of India. 'India for me is a great abstract painting. Logic and mind do not enter but only the heart speaks'.

FORZA 9 is open every day from 10:00-14:00/18:00-21:00 hrs. during the exhibition and by appointment: call 99127428
